The Pittsburghs Touch Up Meekin, Too, and Win with Comparative Ease-Another Brooklyn Defeat Recorded at Chieago-Boston Shuts the Louisvilles Out and the Other League Games Go to Baltimore and Cincinnati-Many Other Comes

The New Yorks wound up their first series in Pittsburgh yesterday with a defeat. Beginning to-morrow, Davis's men will begin their last week's campaign in the West before coming to the Polo grounds. Up to date they have played ten games with Western teams, and have broken just even. The Brooklyns lost another game to the Chicagos, and took a further tumble in the percentage column. The Cincin-natis defeated the Washingtons, and are just thirty points behind the Pittsburghs. Boston beat Louisville by the unusual score of 1 to 0. and continues in third place, twenty points be bind Buck Ewing's men. By outpointing the Clevelands the Philadelphias took fifth place away from Tebeau's team, and the Baltimores tied the New Yorks for seventh position by virtue of their victory over St. Louis. The results: Ittaburgh, 7; New York, 4.

Pirranguou, May 18 .- It is many and many a day since there was such a lively, such a scrapping, and such a bitter baseball game in Pitts burgh as that of to-day between the New Yorks of every player from the word go. The visitors were beaten on their merits, with Meckin in Of course they were as anxious to win as they of course they were as anxious to win as they ever were in their lives, probably more so. They were beaten from the first inning on to the finish. They knew that, and hence the bad spirit they displayed. The score, with seven hits and seven errors to New York's credit, shows beyond all doubt, that they were outplayed. Their fielding was bad, and they couldn't hit Hart's pitching, while the home players fielded brilliantly and batted the ball good and hard.

There were it 0.00 recoils present, and at times liantly and batted the ball good and hard.

There were 6,000 people present, and at times the entire crowd and all the eighteen players were wild with excitement. The scenes were really the wildest that have been seen here, and at one stage Doyle ran up to Umpire Betts with clenched fist and threatened to knock his face off. It is true beyond doubt that Betta umpired a very bad game, and while it may be hard to tell which suffered more from his decisions perhaps the New Yorks did. But this was in a large measure due to their successful efforts to rattle Betts, and there's no denying they had him way up in the air. There were four close and perhaps bad decisions, but they were svenly spilt between the two teams.

him way up in the air. There were four close and perhaps bad decisions, but they were svenly split between the two teams.

In the eighth inning the wildest scene of all occurred. Doyle had reached third base, and tried to score on an infield hit by Stafford. Betts decided that Doyle was out at the plate from Cross. Had the run counted it would have tied the score. The moment the decision was given, Doyle, Capt. Davis, and about a half dozen more New Yorkers surrounded Betts. Doyle claimed he was safe, and the umpire claimed he was not. Then all the New Yorkers began to kick. They claimed that he touched the plate with one hand as he slid past, and as to that there is a good deal of divergence of opinion, even from unbiassed sources. But if ever a man was struck out Doyle was in that very inning, and the umpire sent him to first on balla and Stafford was also fairly struck out, so that the visitors got the best of it. Betts was unable to follow Hart's curves, and as a result many a "ball" was called wrongfully.

The New Yorks began the game full of confi-

Hetts was unable to follow Hart's curves, and as a result many a "ball" was called wrongfully.

The New Yorks began the game full of confidence, but Billy Hart fooled them. He pitched a fine game and was well supported. On the other hand, the Pittsburghs began to rap Meekin in the first inning and kept doing so. His support was miserable and the fielding very had. Stafford made some bad mistakes, and fuller muffed a fly in the most ridiculous way. In the second half of the first inning Donovan started off with a single in the infield and got to second on a wild throw by Tiernan. Stenzel popped out a little fly to Fuller, and was out. Beckley made a single, scoring Donovan, and then Smith's little fly was caught by Fuller. Bierbauer sent a long single to centre and Heckley scored, aided by a muffed throw by Stafford.

The New Yorks began to score in the fourth inning. Tiernan got his base on balls and stole second. Davis struck out. Tiernan got to third on a passed ball, and scored on an infield hit by loyle. It seemed to the majority of onlockers that Tiernan was out at the plate, and the decision caused a kick from the home team.

In the second half of the inning Clingman reached first on a fumble by Stafford, and scored on Crosa's single, a sacrifice by Kinslow, and a single by Donovan.

In the second half of the inning Clingman reached first on a fumble by Stafford, and secored on Cross's single, a sacrifice by Kinslow, and a single by Donovan.

The visitors scored one more in the fifth. After Hart had struck Stafford and Farrell out, Meekin cracked the ball over to left centre field. Stenzel fumbled the ball and Meekin got to third. The hit was a two-baser only. Fuller came next with a good swipe to right for a single and Meekin scored. The score was now in the second of the second and there was plenty of excitement. Beckley fouled out, and Smith singled and stole second, aided by a passed ball. Doll' made a two-bager to right center, and Smith tallied. Bierhauer then stole third. Farrell made a good throw but Davis turned the wrong way with the ball. Clingman fouled out, and Cross sent up a little fly, which Fuller got hold of and dropped, Bierhauer scoring.

In the sixth the visitors scored another. Bannon went out at first and Tiernan got his base on balls. Davis was hit by a pitched ball, and Doyle struck out. Van Haltren's two-baser scored Tiernan. One more was made by the New Yorks in the seventh. Farrell singled and got to third on Meekin's single, and scored on Fuller's long fly to Donovan. It was very exciting now.

In the eighth the scene stready reserved to be place, and no runs were tailied for the visitors. The home players made two on Stafford's fumble, Hart's triple, and a double by Stenzel. The New Yorks were easily disposed of in the binth. The score:

Farnel runs—Pittsburgh, 2; New York, 1. Two-base lifs stensel, Blerbauer, Van Haltren, Meekin (2). Three base hit—Hart. Sacrifice hit—Kinslow. First base on errors—Pittsburgh, 3. CHICAGO. 8; BROOKLYN, 6.
CHICAGO, May 18.—With rain and an unfriendly umpire, the colts had a hard time to wis to-day's game. From the beginning the colts evinced a deep yearning to treat Pitcher kennedy in the same inhospitable manner that they did Stein yesterday. Jimmy Ryan, who is chicago's crack battsman, stepped to the plate and sent the first ball pitched screaming through the fogzy atmosphere into deep left field for three bags. Dahlen followed with a single, and then Wilmot took a vicious swipe at the sphere and landed it against the right field fence for a triple, bringing in two runs. It didn' book as though a game were possible until a haf hour before the time for beginning play. A steady fall of rain—not a storm, but a wretched crizzle kept up all day. Shortly after 3 o'clock there were signs of a clearing up, and the sen made an inefectual attempt to shine. During the fourth inning rain began to fall again, and impore Long called game against the vigorous roughless of Anson and the crowds on the blenchers. CHICAGO, 8; BROOKLYN, 6.

Brooklyn players were not enxious to play, as the score was unanimously against them, and they climbed into the grand stand. The tempire finally decided that his seven-dollar sait would not be harmed by the now imperceptible deluge. The colts then tried to hasten through the fifth inning, that the score might count. The game was flually brought to a conclusion satisfactory to the rooters for the home team, though they narrowly escaped defeat in the inith, when the visitors, aided by fain, errors, and timely hits, made four runs.

Trouble in the Baltimore Club, BALTIMORE, May 18 .- The poor work of the chamdons in the West is ascribed to internal dissensions It is said that certain players are at loggerheads with Manager Haulon and that the latter and Capt. Robin son cannot agree. The retirement of Dan Brouthers in favor of First Baseman Carey is said to be one source of trouble. It is a well-known fact that Joe Kelly has not speken to Hanion since the season opened, and that McGraw is one of the leading natcontents because of the ciub's refusal to raise his salary. A shake up by the local management is among the possibilities.

YALE CRUSHES THE TIGERS. Pretty Dame at New Haven in Which

NEW HAVEN, May 18 .- The Yale nine pulled the ball game with Princeton out of a very small hole this afternoon, winning by a score of 1 to 0. It was one of those games in which every play meant something, and the 4,000 persons who watched it develop into a Yale victory cheered incessantly. The decisions of Jim O'Rourke, the umpire, could not be heard, and it was only the movements of the players that determined just what was going on. It was a typical Yale crowd, well besprinkled with pretty girls, and Princeton had a large contingent of rooters present to The Princeton supporters were on hand early, and they brought plenty of enthusiasm and sand and some money. They were filled with the idea that their team could win the game, and bet their money at 5 to 4, and in some in-stances even. Phil King was along, and he confidently stated that Princeton had a winning team. Yale men were not very sanguine of success. They hoped that Carter's arm would hold out throughout the game, but what they feared happened in the sixth inning, when Carter left the field and Trudeau took his place.

Until that time honors were easy, but the

CALIFORNIANS DO GOOD WORK. They Tie the Pennsylvania Athletes in the PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—The dual athletic games between the University of California and the University of Pennsylvania were held this afternoon on Franklin Field, and the result was a tie, each team winning seven events. Inasmuch, however, as the Californians did not compete in two of the events-one mile run and the pole vault—the outcome was, morally, a victory for the vicitors. The weather was cloudy and a heavy rain last night made the track heavy, but, notwithstanding this, all the performances were creditable.

Of the fourteen events, nine were track and five field competitions. After finishing third in Jarvis of Pennsylvania had practically a walk-over. When Edgren had won the hammer-throwing contest for California the score was ? to 6 in favor of the visiting team, but the Paolife Slope collegisms did not have a representative for the concluding event, the pole vault, and Pennsylvania necessarily tied the score. The attendance was 2,000. The summaries:

. GEORGE DIXON ARRESTED. The Colored Puglist Intoxicated and Tries to Restst an Officer. George Dixon, since his company disbanded for the season, a week ago, has been having a high old time in this city. As a result of this conviviality, Dixon was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct, and locked up in the Twenty-third precinct sub-station under the Grand Central station. He was released on bail later in the afternoon, John Martin of 95 East Tenth street going on his bond for $500. This morning his ville Police Court.

case will be heard by the Judge in the Yorkville Police Court.

A few days ago Dixon planned to give a boxing show at Halifax, Nova Scotia, the place where he was born. His manager has been buslly engaged in arranging the details of the proposed entertainment. Dixon in the mean time made up his mind to visit Boston, his present home, to settle some important matters. He was to have gone there yesterday afternoon.
About an hour before the train was due to start,
which was at 10 o'clock, Dixon, in company with a friend, proceeded to the Grand Central Depot. They arrived early, and in order to relieve the monotony of waiting they visited a number of salcons in the neighborhood, returning to the depot after each drink.
The featherweight champion, who is a goodnatured and gentlemanly fellow as a rule, sould not restrain nimself, and those persons who were in the New York, New Haven and Hartford Haliroad waiting room, where the two men had entered, made a sirong protest against Dixon's presence.

The champion and his friend then got on the train, but Dixon made himself so obnoxious to the passengers that Policeman Peter W. Goff was summoned. The latter tried to reason with Dixon, but the dusky begar would not be subdued, and he challenged the officer to fight. The latter finally got the colored boxer to the station house and locked him up.

EXHIBITION MILES AT PARKWAY. John Driscoll Shows a Very Promising

The Park way track at Gravesend was too wet yesterday to suit the trotters, and the programme which had been arranged for the opening of the harness racing season in Brooklyn was accordingly declared off after the officers of the Parkway Driving Club had waited half the afternoon for the waterlogged course to round

By way of entertaining the large crowd of club members and their friends who were in attendance, several informal exhibitions were hurriedly gotten up. One of them developed as close and exciting a horse race as the habitues of Parkway have seen in many a day. E. T. Bed-ford's Wanda, the chestnut horse J. U. C., and the brown mare Jenny D., trotted a work-out mile in company, but the big bay Piedmont mare won away off, with lots to spare, in 2:35%, after which Thomas Morgan's bay gelding Jube mare won away off, with lots to spare, in 2:354, after which Thomas Morgan's bay gelding Jube was substituted for Jenny D., and a second mile was trotted. The new factor in the soutest proved to be a clinker, for he overhauled the Hedford mare in the last quarter, and after a rousing finish just missed beating her out in 2:294. Wands is classed as one of the best trotters in the metropolitan district, and the sight of Jube giving her a red-hot argument was a surprise to horsemen.

Mr. Bedford's good horse Gilletts trotted a great exhibition mile, considering the muddy condition of the track. Driven by Charles Bedford, the black son of Cyclone doubted the course in 2:194, going to the half in 1:11, and and finishing in 1:983. This is the fastest public mile of the season thus far by a trotter, and competent indees said it was equal to 2:15 on a well-conditioned mile track. Gillette's pole mare and full sister, Black Ide, 2:17, who has been ill and out of form for some time past, is coming into fine form this spring, and Mr. Bedford expects to see them trut a fast mile in double harness before the end of the season.

Another exhibition worthy of note was that of a two-year-old filly by Drew Wilkes, driven by the popular Parkville trainer, John Driscoll, Hitched to a sulky for the first time, the youth of the season. The sweeptakes race between Frank Creamer's Green B. 2:21 ja; Thomas Morgan's Juke, 2:20, and the chestnut trotter, Lucky Baldwin, 2:24, which was on yesterday's card, will be trotted next Saturday. On Thursday, May 30, a special matince is to be held at the Parkway track, with a purse of $300, for 2:25 trotters, and $200 for trotters of the 2:45 class. A sweep-stakes has also been arranged between H. Q. Mohman's John, Herman Ropke's Free Trade, and F. Schleemann's Frank S.
